

John Dominic M. Acuisa

Full-Stack Web Developer

PROFILE

Highly motivated web developer with a diverse skill set. Enthusiastic, hard-working, and knowledgeable, I am interested in applying practical and theoretical knowledge gained through personal projects and professional experience in a real-world IT context. A quick learner with strong problem-solving abilities and a desire to keep current on developing technology. Seeking a career where I can obtain hands-on experience and contribute to IT projects while expanding my skill set.
